

ASPIRIANT

Aspiriant Expands to Larger Office in Austin

Office Will Support Continued Growth in Texas

August 18, 2020 (Austin, TX) - Aspiriant, a leading independent wealth management firm based in Los Angeles, announced the opening of its newest office location in Austin, Texas at 3801 S. Capital of Texas Hwy. The opening of the new 4,000 square foot office comes just 12 months after Aspiriant opened its first office in Austin at 111 Congress Street in August of 2019.

Over the past year, Aspiriant's presence in Austin has grown from four to ten employees with a new hire set to start this month. The firm is currently hiring and hopes to reach twenty-five employees in the next five years, growing the team by two to three people each year.

“We are thrilled to be officially opening our 4,000 square foot office space off the Texas 360 Loop overlooking the beautiful Barton Creek Greenbelt in Austin,” said Ryan T. Nelson, Director, Investment Advisory, Partner. “This multi-year lease further solidifies our dedication to expanding our investment operations and wealth management presence in Austin and in greater Texas, while also providing long-term career opportunities in a unique, affordable, and centrally located metropolitan region.”

Aspiriant, an industry-leading national firm, has $12 billion in assets under and provides full-service wealth management services to 1700 clients across 11 cities nationwide. The firm's forward-thinking, client-first, sustainable business model is designed to remain 100% employee-owned indefinitely.

While the majority of Aspiriant’s workforce is currently working remotely to prevent the spread of Covid-19, the firm has developed a strategic nationwide reopening plan that includes several phases and safety protocols such as staggered schedules, daily health screenings, and common area mask protocols. As part of thoughtful design of the new Austin office, the firm will create seating assignments that provide a proper safe distance from other colleagues, while allowing people who collaborate regularly in the same general vicinity.

“We are deeply committed to serving our clients in Texas,” said Rob Francais, CEO of Aspiriant “Austin is an important and growing market, and our expansion here falls in line with Aspiriant's long-term expansion plan to provide an on the ground presence in key markets across the U.S. as well as build out an operations hub.”

About Aspiriant

Aspiriant is a leading independent wealth management firm in the U.S. with more than $12 billion in assets under management and advisement. The firm provides a full range of wealth management services to over 1,700 individuals, families and institutions throughout the country with offices in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Silicon Valley, San Diego, Orange County, New York, Boston, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, and Austin. For more information, visit www.aspiriant.com.

SOURCE Aspiriant

Media Contact:

Stephanie Dressler / Elena Muller
Dukas Linden Public Relations
stephanie@dlpr.com/elena@dlpr.com